FARMVILLE.

The metropolis of Southside Virginia, for Farmville has long since won that distinction, kept pace with the spirit of progress which was abroad in the land during the year 1906. Some of our merchants speak of the year 1905 as being the record-breaking one for business in the life of the place, but all of them unite in saying that the trade of 1906 has been entirely satisfactory and indicative of healthy growth.

The sale of tobacco on our warehouse floors during the fall season has not been up to the high water mark, but our inspectors were not without Christmas money and have given evidence of good cheer and hopefulness. In this connection it must be admitted that the association of farmers, which has been formed for mutual protection, has been putting in some telling licks. Certain is it that a large portion of the 1906 crop of tobacco of this section has been held in reserve, and it remains to be seen whether it will find its way into the association's storage room or be sold in open market. Victory for the farmers means general good. I have no objection nor envy of the millionaires, but I much prefer a multitude of well-to-do people to a very few rich folk, who have fattened on the misfortunes of their fellow citizens. The concentration of the wealth of the country in the hands of a favored few, within the recent past, is one of the menaces of the age in which we live The fingers and toes of the human body are as much entitled to their portion of blood as is the heart itself. Wise physicians fear congestion no matter where it exists. If our statesmen were wise too they too would be at least see to it that our laws do not contribute to any such morbid condition in the body politic.

During the year our mail matter has increased enormously and the same is true of our freights, express and sales of railroad tickets. Altogether we as a people have much to be grateful for and enter upon the New Year with bright hopes of even better things.

The one sad omission on the part of our county and our town grows out of the fact that neither will be represented at the Jamestown Exposition. This is a positive and public calamity. Our sister county, Charlotte, should make us feel abashed, if not ashamed of ourselves Has Appomattox done her duty in this regard? "If not go for her."

The Hampden Sidney boys took the town an evening or two before Christmas and painted the heavens red, to the delight of the Normal girls, who in turn had some fun of their own the following evening. A little nonsense now and then is good for most men, an especially for boys and girls. I have no sympathy with the man or woman who gets "uppish" when our young folks get out on a 'lark.' God gave the mule a long face but not men. Long faces among men are salt made.

Mr. J. L. L. Bugg and bride have returned from their Southern tour and are boarding in the home of Mayor W. T. Blanton.

Prof. E. H. Russell and family are in their new home on High Street.

Mr. R. J. Hillsman, one of the most enterprising of our dry goods merchants, will be married today to Miss Bernice L. Bondurant, at Beulah Christian church, this county. After the 12th of January they will be at 'home' in Farmville.

Mr. R. Baxter Tuggle, a special representative of the American Tobacco Company spent Christmas in town Mr. and Mrs. John Berkley, who expected to return to their home in Berkley before the beginning of the New Year, have determined to remain with us until spring, much to the delight of their many friends in Farmville.

Rev. Mr. Claiborne has gone to his new charge in Louisianna.

The Rev. Mr. Graham, pastor of the Presbyterian church, was presented with a purse of $100 by the gentlemen of his church and the ladies gave Mrs. Graham a handsome dinner set.

The ladies of town have organized a library association and have entered upon the work with commendable enthusiasm.

There is feeble hope of having free mail delivery in our little city. Of course we would be glad to have a government building also.

Dr. Anderson wears the belt as champion bird shot, and the best of it is that he has his friends to enjoy his trophies with him around his own table.

Turkeys dropped to 11 cents during Christmas, much to the delight of housekeepers. Eggs, too, took a drop, but hogs were not as general as in days gone by. Of course the dispensary did a making business, and this means another walk and roadways.

Dr. Messenger and Miss Snow, of the Normal faculty, attended an education l meeting in New York city during the Christmas vacation.

Most of Farmville's country cheer for Christmas came from Cumberland and Buckingham. They are our reliable friends summer and winter. It is pleasant to know in turn we are always ready to supply their town wants.

The Board of Supervisors for the county of Prince Edward hold monthly sessions and the meetings are looked forward to with interest like that with which the county courts were invested.

General regret is expressed that we didn't have an ice spell before Christmas. Farmers feel more comfortable when they begin the New Year with the meat in the smoke house and ice gathered and covered with leaves or straw, and after all the prudent, pushing farmer must be the happiest of earth's workers.

On Christmas eve a large number of the Presbyterians gathered in their church to listen to the tones of their new pipe organ as it was played by the expert who put it in position. There was a universal acclaim of 'perfectly grand', 'glorious,' and having been among the listeners I am convinced that the cords of commendation were not extravagant. The instrument is simply magnificent.

A brighter sun never dawned on this old earth of ours than that of Christmas day and the air was just sharp enough to give health flushes to cheeks and quickness to footsteps

I hope every body in Farmville had a good Christmas dinner. I recall one that was "fit for a king."

Chronic Constipation Cured

One who suffers from chronic constipation is in danger of many serious ailments. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation as it aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels, restoring the natural action of these organs. Commence taking it today and you will feel better at once. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes.

The emotionality of the Mayor of San Francisco may be due to his musical talents.

How to Avoid Pneumonia

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. 'Tis unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty cent and one dollar size. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it. Including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

OLD BUCKINGHAM.

THE GRAND OLD COUNTY PHOTOGRAPHED.

Many Interesting Reports Made of Her People.

Buckingham.

The esteemed member of the corresp ondent's staff from Sheppards said in his last week's letter, that at this season we are retrospective and I add that it is natural that we should be, and taking this little place first in thought I am so reminded of the ravages of time. How much more populous is the vineclad cemetery here than the living town, and while I'm in this line of thought I'm minded to mention in brief the men who have lived and died here since I can remember. 1st I mention Robert May, of a family from which the place Mayesville took its name. Mr. May was a natural musician and I have never heard anyone play the violin as he did, bringing out the soft, sweet notes of which the instrument is capable and leaving out that screechy, harsh, sound so freq ently made by novices. Bob May, as he was called, had only one child, the slender, frail, dark eyed little Mary, a beautiful child she was. Wm. H. Parrack was wont to accompany with his "Flexible flute," the soft violin playing of Mr. May. "I have traveled much this weary world of care and sage experience prompts me this declare" that such musicians these two made is not now to be heard. Yes I heard it and was as much entranced as was Trinty O'Ferrall by the "Flexible Flute" of Sweetgall.

Mr. David Parrack, the epitome of neatness, in writing, in dress, in his looks made in the count clerk's office a marvel of the penman's art, his bearing so dignified, a type of the Virginia gentleman. I had not the pleasure of an acquaintance with Mr. Thomas Parrack, Jr., but old Mr. Thomas Parrack as he sat with black beaver hat and cane on his front door steps who can forget? A kindly word and smile for all.

Judge John Hill, for so long Judge of our county courts, was an able jurist and in his youn er days was said to have been a power on the hustings.

Capt. Wm. A. Moss, a man of splendid physique, dignified, every inch a soldier, and one of the handsomest men in the county. He was very popular and was Treasurer of the county longer than any other man. Mr. Frank Moss, a brother, lived here for a while, but I remember him only as a quiet, unassuming business gentleman, of the rural appearance.

John W. Fisher was for a long time deputy sheriff, a brave confederate soldier, and after the war so kind to his old comrades in arms, who cannot recall the cordial handshake and polite greeting so peculiar to him.

Erastus W. Everett, an elder in the Presbyterian church, a man of irreproachable character, and sterling integrity. His example still lives.

L. B. Pearson, a first class mechanic, industrious and thrifty man, who attended strictly to business and raised his family in comfort.

A. T. Moseley, who for so long acted as sheriff, an intelligent, active man of affairs, a deacon in his church.

Mr. Moseley was for a long time postmaster here and raised a large family of children, who were very fond of him.

Col. Lipscomb I only recollect as a very aged man of polished manners, who was well thought of by everyone.

Wm. C. Ager, that veteran merchant, organ in mouse here as a member of the firm of West & Ager and continued in business here until he was stricken with a fatal illness which caused his death at Gravel Hill. Mr. Ager's name was the synonym of all that is honest and honorable in business, his word was gold as his bond.

Wm. B. Giles, blacksmith, hotel keeper and jailor. In each capable, intelligent and honest. He left a heritage better than riches, a good name.

Mr. Farley and Mr. Cobbs were both good saddlers, Mr. Cobb having done some of the finest work I ever saw done, and old saddles may be found now with the most perfect hand stitching on them of any saddles made.

I find that to complete even a brief mention of the others of my friends, who have departed would take up too much space and I will have to defer to some other time.

The store, house of Mr. Van Gilliam, near Togo, with a stock of merchandise was destroyed by fire Friday night and no cause is assigned, unless indeed it was fired by the hand of an incendiary. The loss will fall heavily on Mr. Gilliam as it is said he carried no insurance.

On Saturday Mr. Geo. H. Elcan fell from the top of the new house he is building and was taken up in an unconscious state. He was attended by Dr. Morriss and on Sunday he regained consciousness several times at intervals. Mr. Elcan and his young wife have the sympathy of the whole county people and a wish for his speedy recovery.

Mr. R. H. Spencer has lingered in a very low state for many days with heart trouble. He came home sick Saturday before Christmas and several times his life has been despaired of.

There was a fine attendance at the Ladies' Aid Society on Saturday last. They comprise the most energetic, enterprising ladies in Buckingham and they do a great amount of good, as well as gaining much pleasure themselves in the way of social intercourse.

Miss Graham Trent, who had pneumonia, is reported as out of danger.

Miss Jessie Trent expects to return to the High School here when the Francisco school session is out.

Mr. Kelly, who bought, or tried to buy, the Bailey farm, has given it up and now has the old "Moon" tract near Gennore.

Mr George Walton and his aged wife were remembered in a substantial way by some of their friends for Christmas.

Too saw mill men are paying such wages as to get the labor away from farmers and yet they market the lumber and will not even saw the farmers' building stuff.

Andersonville.

Where shall we begin? At the beginning as Bub Robertson would say. Well lets start from Christmas. Did you ever see such pretty weather and such a good time for Santa Clause to come? R. R. ties 30 and 45 cents, eggs 24 cents, butter 25 cents and chickens and turkeys away up. Old Santa had a real good time. Thanks to a kind Providence and a well executed administration! I don't know of but one greater man than our President and that is a western democrat. You will guess who he is. Lets give him the presidency for eight years from next time, then take Mr. Roosevelt again for another term. Such men as they are ought to be kept constantly in harness. Well that will be talked of enough when the time comes.

I must tell you of our new neighbors, Mr. J. H. Forbes, wife and three children. Jim is making a prime neighbor. My wife says Julia is a model cook and housekeeper and I say it will be hard to find three such sprightly children. Jim Henry Forbes, Jr. as he puts it, is a fine boy. Mrs. Mamie Anderson is making her home with them.

Miller and Eddie McCraw came home before Christmas from their business in the South. Miller from S. C. and Eddie from Mississippi They left the 2nd. Miss Bessie spent the Christmas with home folks. She has a school in Halifax county. Nine months session, five as a public and four as a private. Miss Etta Sinclair, from Hampton, that brigh , sprightly Normalite, who is now teaching in her city by the sea, was a visitor, as was Miss Eleanor Wyatt during the holidays, at the McCraw home. Miss Lucy is at home for the winter.

The Enon Sunday School had a nice tree Thursday and a large crowd was present.

Miss Pearl Stegall gave her friends a nice party Thursday night.

Miss Nannie Gilliam is improving slowly but surely since her return from the Memorial hospital.

Christmas brings joy to many, sorrow to those who mourn lost loved ones.

The death of Rev. W. E. Ballard was a great shock to all. He had been complaining for several months, but went to Conference. Came back sick the 21st of November. The 23d we drove over to Victoria in the morning and walked down to the village in the afternoon. He never left the yard after that day. He had every attention possible, but died the 27th, was buried at Bethel by Rev. Harvey Johnson and the Masonic fraternity on the 29th. The Lunenburg people were just as kind to him in his sickness and to his family, after death as could be. The Yates, Harvess, Waddells, Smiths, Bakon, Fowlkes and many others will not be soon forgotten for their kindness. Mr. Charlie Ballard, his brother from Boiling Green, Mr. Willie Bell from West Point and James Anderson, from Richmond, his brothers-in-law attended his burial. His widow and baby boy will make their home at Andersonville, Miss Sally at Boiling Green and Richard at West Point. They will spend a good part of the summer months together either at one place or the other.

A young lady wanted to visit a family at Lunenburg during the Christmas. She got off at Burkeville from the South on the 24th, saw a livery man and engaged the team to take her down with a safe driver. He was uneasy and told her not to be alarmed that Sam Jones had told him years ago about anchoring in Jesus. He had asked Him to care for him on that trip, and she need not fear wind or wave he had anchored to the Rock of Ages.

The Virginia State Insurance Co. is sending out a real nice calendar A. H. Clement, Agent. Just suits these old eyes of mine.

Miss Mary Anderson is at home seeing after her baby nephew, Wm. Edward.

Eddie Anderson had a nice gold watch and fob given him for a birthday-Christmas gift, with name engraved on both.

Miss Bertha Anderson spent her holidays in Grundy. She will teach another 5-month session in Buchanan and has bargained for a full term.

Miss Annie Flood has a large, full school and is giving satisfaction to both patrons and pupils.
